

I enjoy my home life now that the do not call act is in place. For months now, when the phone rings, it is someone I know and want to talk to. Please do not allow my peace to be disturbed again by reducing the strength of our NJ Do Not Call laws.
Thank you.